REVIEW PROCESS:

The Ouzinkie Native Corporation scholarship committee reviews applications and awards funding. When the Ouzinkie Native Corporation receives an application, staff processes the application and determines eligibility. The applicant is notified of the status of their award once it is reviewed.

The decision whether to consider or not consider an application due to the applicant's past material violation(s) of any of Ouzinkie Native Corporation's Elders and Youth Scholarship Guidelines are at the sole and absolute discretion of the Scholarship Committee. The decision to award scholarship funds to an applicant and the amount of any funds awarded is in the sole and absolute discretion of the Scholarship Committee.

There will be a random drawing of names for the five elders and ten youth if more apply than available scholarships.

This application does not cover attendance at AFN.

DISBURSEMENT OF FUNDS:

- 1. Funds are on a reimbursement basis unless the applicant expresses dire financial need; then, prepayment will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
2. Scholarship funds can be used for the following expenses: travel and per diem with proof of expenses. The Scholarship Committee may determine which costs are acceptable and adjust awards accordingly.
3. Room, board, and travel (including but not limited to round-trip air, ferry, or mileage reimbursement) may be covered if training is outside the area of residence.

Rental cars will not be covered. Verification of each expense is required.
