ELIGIBILITY:

Open to shareholders of Ouzinkie Native Corporation (ONC) and registered descendants. Applicants may apply as many times as desired up to a total of $1,000 per calendar year. The Alutiiq word "Napneq" means joint "where wisdom comes in."

SCHOLARSHIPS:

Funding is limited to $1,000 per calendar year, available to Ouzinkie Native Corporation Shareholders and registered descendants to attend Alutiiq/Supiaq cultural trainings, camps, or events. Examples of Alutiiq/Supiaq cultural trainings, camps, or events that qualify for funding include culture camps, beading, mask carving, and Sugpiaq/Alutiiq language classes.

WHO MAY APPLY:

- The Napneq Cultural Enhancement Scholarship is awarded to:
 - Ouzinkie Native Corporation Shareholders, defined as: Ouzinkie Native Corporation Shareholders who are Alaska Native.
 - Registered Descendant of an Ouzinkie Native Corporation Shareholder, defined as "any lineal descendant of a Shareholder who has registered with Ouzinkie Native Corporation." (Visit: www.Ouzinkie.com or contact Shareholder Records to register as a Descendant).
- Applicants must be accepted to, enrolled in, or registered to participate in cultural camps, trainings, classes, or events.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

A complete application packet must be submitted. Incomplete applications will not be awarded funding.

- A completed Application Form including registration, or an acceptance email or letter and verification of expenses.
- Applications must be submitted within 14-days of the start date, when paid directly to the program provider.

HOW TO APPLY:

Complete the scholarship application (available on the ONC website) and provide following documents with the application:

- A letter of acceptance from the course provider or a copy of an enrollment form or registration form for the one-time cultural training, camp, or event that includes estimated expenses.
- A copy of related expenses must be attached.
Please email, fax, or send application and documents to:

REVIEW PROCESS:

The Ouzinkie Native Corporation scholarship committee reviews applications and awards funding. When Ouzinkie Native Corporation receives an application, staff processes the application and verifies eligibility. The applicant is notified of the status of their award once it is reviewed.

The decision whether to consider or not consider an application due to the applicant's past material violation(s) of any of Ouzinkie Native Corporation's Napneq Cultural Enhancement Scholarship Guidelines is in the sole and absolute discretion of the Scholarship Committee. Also, the decision to award scholarship funds to an applicant, and the amount of any funds awarded, is in the sole and absolute discretion of the Scholarship Committee.

DISBURSEMENT OF FUNDS:

- Scholarship funds will be disbursed directly to the educational institution or program in one payment or may be reimbursed to the recipient upon proof of expenses.
- Scholarship funds can be used for the following expenses: registration, tuition, books, fees, uniforms or regalia, supplies, travel, and reasonable living expenses (based on current per diem rates) in conjunction with the cultural training, event, class or camp. The Scholarship Committee may determine which expenses are acceptable and adjust awards accordingly.
- For the Napneq Cultural Enhancement Scholarship, students may apply as many times as desired, as long as he/she does not receive more than $1,000 total per calendar year, and as long as it's not for the same cultural camp, training, class or event or continuation of a program.

DEADLINES:

Napneq Cultural Enhancement applications must be submitted within 14 days of the start date and is paid directly to the program provider.
